

BPW NZ ANNE TODD ISSUES AWARD

This Award is presented at the Federation Conference to the BPW Club that in the previous year has most actively pursued an issue which related to the status of women.

This award will be judged by the Vice President - Issues.

Entries should be sent to the Chair of Project Committee by 1st March each year.

Examples

- Education of Club membership and the wider community by letter writing campaigns,
- Holding meetings and seminars
- Lobbying local MP's and Government ministers through the Federation and the appropriate Chairs . Trying to bring other clubs on board. Clubs are reminded that the activities must be in line with the aims and policies of BPW NZ, and must be approved by the Federation.

Award Entries

Entries are made by forwarding a presentation of the Club activities in a concise, attractive and readable format which:

- Clearly sets out the issue being pursued and any aims the club has in pursuing this issue.
- Shows relevance to CEDAW where possible,
- Explains how members were involved.
- How the issue was actually pursued (copies of supporting material can be provided)
- Were time lines set and met?
- What publicity (if applicable) was gained for BPW?
- Is it an ongoing issue?
- What areas of difficulty if any were encountered?
- Recommendations and evaluations for the Federation and Club.

Please include a covering letter from the Club President stating the Club, and that the entry is for the Anne Todd Issues Award.
