2. ALIX HAYWOOD AWARD FOR BEST CLUB NEWSLETTER This award is presented at Conference to the club which is judged to have displayed the best standard of communication during the previous year, primarily through the club newsletter. Awarded in 2009 to Kaitaia

3. ANNE TODD BELL AWARD (Issues Award) This Award is presented to the BPW Club that has most actively pursued an issue which improves the status of women. This award is judged by the Vice President - Issues. Awarded in 2009 to Auckland.

4. BROOKER MARKETING AWARD This is a trophy presented at Conference each year to a Club that has been the most effective in marketing BPW through an activity they have completed in the current year. Awarded in 2009 to Upper Hutt.

5. DAPHNE CHAPMAN AWARD

The Daphne Chapman Award is to be awarded annually by the Federation for the promotion of the image of BPW New Zealand. This includes actions which may have been undertaken within the Club, local or national community, which promote the vision of BPW New Zealand.

The nominee needs to show how the skills of communication, leadership, training, and originality have been used. Awarded in 2009 to Dianne Glenn, BPW Franklin

6. JEAN PARK COMMUNITY ACHIEVEMENT AWARD (Helping Your Local Community)

Each year many BPW Clubs have a positive input into their local communities by instigating actions and practical support for various organizations. This not only benefits the organizations and the people associated with them but the BPW Club locally and nationally as well. This award is presented annually to the club that contributes the most to their local community during the past year, recognising the efforts that the members put into being an active part of their community.

This award will consider both annual projects as well as new initiatives. Awarded in 2009 to Dunedin

7. THE NEPAL PRAYER LAMP

The Nepal Prayer Lamp is awarded annually to the Club that raises the most money for the literacy programme. Awarded in 2009 to Warkworth.

8. THE HARRISON-LEE CANDLESTICK

The Harrison-Lee Candlestick is awarded annually to the Club that has achieved the highest percentage increase in membership. There is no application form. The Treasurer calculates the results from returns the Clubs are asked to supply. Awarded in 2009 to Auckland
